Mission Statement

"We the Roman Catholic Community of St. Mary Church believe in a loving and caring God. By our Baptism we are called to proclaim and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we use our gifts and talents to build the kingdom of God, a kingdom of love, peace, and justice in our families, in our school, in our parish, and in our world."

ORDINARY TIME

In the Gospel on this 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear that Jesus' own disciples were afraid to ask him a question when they didn't understand what he was saying to them. I wonder what they were afraid of. Were they thinking Jesus might berate them or embarrass them for asking a simple question? Were they fearful of what the answer might demand of them? Were they worried what the other disciples might think of the question they asked?

It might be helpful for us to examine why we sometimes are afraid to ask questions. Personally, I love it when people ask questions. And one of the reasons I encourage people to ask their question – especially within a group – is that there is usually at least one other person in the group that is so glad you asked the question because they wanted to know the answer too, but were embarrassed to ask it themselves.

So, where am I going with this? Potluck Theology – where you can ask your question (s) anonymously and have something to eat. One Saturday evening of each month after the Saturday evening Mass, join us for a potluck supper. The kickoff Saturday will be October 9th. After the 5 pm Mass we will meet in the school gym and share whatever food dishes are brought in. After 20-30 minutes of eating, we'll start the Q & A session, which will last about an hour. (If you're not done eating, don't worry, you can keep right on and even go for more.) The questions will come from those submitted by the Monday before the potluck Saturday (so, for this inaugural event, by Monday, October 4th). Write your question (s) down – with no names attached, please – and drop them in the collection basket, or bring or mail them to the parish office by October 4th. The evening of Potluck Theology the questions will be picked randomly from those submitted. Deacon Tim and I, and possibly others, will field and answer your questions about the Church and our Catholic faith. If we don't get to all of the questions, the unanswered questions will remain in the container, and be joined with any additional ones submitted for the next month's Potluck Theology Saturday. The question(s) could be whatever you have about the Catholic faith, its teachings and stances on issues and topics, what we do or don't do at Mass, etc. – no matter how simple or basic, or complicated.

Bring your family or come by yourself, along with a dish to pass. Families with small children, please know your children are welcome to stay for the Q & A, but also that child care will be available during the Q & A. (To help us plan accordingly, please notify the parish office if you will be coming and will need child care.)

Remember, no need to be afraid to ask your question(s), because no one will know who submitted it. Plan on joining us for a meal, and what can be an interesting and fun evening of learning about our faith – and all because you asked your question(s).

Have a blessed week.

Fr Joe
