Mission Statement

"We the Roman Catholic Community of St. Mary Church believe in a loving and caring God. By our Baptism we are called to proclaim and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we use our gifts and talents to build the kingdom of God, a kingdom of love, peace, and justice in our families, in our school, in our parish, and in our world."

From Fr. Joe

“Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Mark 10:43-45).

Hmmm ... what about this “servant” thing? To be honest, that kind of life really isn’t very appealing. But it’s not so much about the kind of job you might have, as it is of the relationships that you have with other people; a servant’s greatest strength isn’t their ability to produce things, but their desire to serve others. The following story, based on an actual event at a Marriott hotel in Anaheim, CA, may help to shed some light on being a servant:

A room-service waiter at one of the Marriott hotels learned that the sister of one of the guests had just died. The waiter, named Charles, bought a sympathy card, had other night hotel staff members sign it, and gave it to the grieving guest along with a piece of hot apple pie. That so touched the guest that she wrote a letter to the president of the hotel chain:

“Mr. Marriott, I’ll never meet you. And I don’t need to meet you because I met Charles. I know what you stand for. I know what your values are. I want to assure you that as long as I live, I will stay at your hotels and tell my friends to stay at your hotels. That night I realized that you care more about me as a person than you do about the few dollars I spent at your hotel ...”

Charles the room-service waiter wasn’t responding to his guest in accordance with any checklist or procedure. He simply treated her like a human being, giving personal service based on his understanding of her needs. (from the book Turned On, by Roger Dow and Susan Cook, 1997)

As a disciple – a servant – of Jesus, could someone write such a letter relating how our service, as Catholics, touched their life? How the way we treated them would bring them to the Catholic Church, and they would tell their friends too? Now THAT’S evangelization!

Last Saturday was the inaugural session of Potluck Theology. The food was great, the discussion was fruitful, and the event ended about 7:40 pm (the target was 7:30, but we were in the midst of discussing the answer to a question). We didn’t get to all of the questions submitted, so those not drawn from the basket will be in the pool for next time. FYI – The next Potluck Theology will be Saturday, November 13th. With our Saturday evening Mass then being at 4:00 pm (for the months of November – March, the Sunday Anticipatory Mass starts at 4:00 pm) Potluck Theology will begin after Mass and end at 6:30 pm.

To give you an idea of what kinds of things are/can be discussed, the following are the questions that were pulled out of the basket:

What is purgatory? What is hell?

Who goes to purgatory?

Why do we confess our sins to a priest, when we can talk directly to God?

Is a baptismal sponsor supposed to help guide the child into adulthood? An example would be inguiding them with their future mate at age 40.

How is it possible for a man who was married to become a priest if his former wife has not passed on?

Is it recommended to abstain from eating meat every Friday throughout the year, not just during Lent?

And what were the answers? Well ... you’ll have to come to Potluck Theology to hear the answers and the discussion of the questions.

A reminder that on All Souls’ Day, Tuesday, Nov. 2nd, we will in a special way remember all those who have died in this past year – i.e. since Nov. 1st, 2020. If you have a family member or dear close friend who has died since Nov. 1, 2020 and you want to remember them on All Souls’ Day, contact the parish office and give us their name and date of death. At the 7:00 pm Mass that day a candle will be lit in their honor and their name will be read aloud as we pray for them. After Mass you are welcome to take that candle home with you and use it as a reminder to continue to pray for them. Only one candle will be lit for each person remembered, so if there are multiple households of the deceased person, please determine which will take the candle home. If no one takes a particular candle home, it will remain in the sanctuary through the month of November.

The bulletin article series “A Journey Through the Mass”, will hopefully begin in next week’s bulletin. (The day before writing this current article I was blessed to find a lot of the fall mushrooms my family calls “stumpers.” Well, that also involved cleaning and processing them, which meant I was up very late. So, I’m just too tired to have it be part of this week’s bulletin.)

Have a blessed week.

Fr Joe

October 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

World Mission Sunday—the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church—will be on October 24 this year. This important day in the life of the Church universal fortifies our understanding of our shared call to mission, bestowed upon us at Baptism.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). The Holy Father shares his zeal, reminding us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." He invites us to speak of our faith!

World Mission Sunday provides us with that very opportunity. We can speak about our faith and respond to our missionary call—through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on that special day. Your gifts support and sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, serve the poor and speak of our shared faith in all corners of the world.

"The global pandemic has brought to the fore and amplified the pain, the solitude, the poverty, and the injustices experienced by so many people," reminds Pope Francis. This year, as the world recovers from the loss and the challenges that resulted, let us respond with reciprocal generosity to the fullest extent that we are able.

If you were unable to support missionaries last year due to difficulties arising from the pandemic and assembly, I urge you to double your generosity for those most in need. As we rebuild our lives, help us to also reach out in solidarity and support for the Mission Church, and the work and witness of missionaries in the Pope's missions.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout Mission Month.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Walter A. Hudley
Apostolic Administrator

Since 1967, the Catholic Church has recurrently called together a Synod of Bishops. This is a time when bishops from all over the world gather in Rome to “journey together” and discuss issues in the life of the Church. In the coming months, ahead of the 2023 Synod of Bishops, Pope Francis has invited all Catholics from around the world to come together to reflect on their experiences and share input on matters of faith and the Church.

In so doing, the Church will voice our dreams, inspire hope and trust, bind up wounds, weave together relationships, and learn from one another in order to better love God and neighbor. This input from around the world will then be compiled and shared for richer discussion at the Synod of Bishops. Your involvement is greatly desired. More information on how the Church asks you personally to participate will be available in the weeks and months to come.

To mark the beginning of this synodal process in our local Diocese of Gaylord, Bishop Hurley is celebrating the 5 p.m. Mass at St. Mary Cathedral on Saturday, October 16. All are invited to attend or view this Mass online at www.dioceseofgaylord.org.

Please join in praying that this synodal process will be fruitful and for widespread engagement throughout our diocese in the coming months.
